Dear Prospective Client:

Adrian Mobley and her company, Air & Wellness Safety Training Company, are successfully working as a construction safety consultant for AECOM Hunt on projects in the Chicago area.

Adrian and her staff have embraced and supported our Core Values, our Life-Preserving Principles, and our Safety for Life Campaign and they complement and support the safety culture that we have worked so hard to cultivate.

Adrian's staff of onsite daily inspectors have demonstrated safety awareness and hazard recognition skills, have a working knowledge of the OSHA Standards that apply to our construction sites and have helped our contracted workers stay compliant.

Please consider Air & Wellness Safety Training Company for your construction safety consulting needs.

Sincerely,

HUNT CONSTRUCTION GROUP, INC.
